

Critical companionship Video Titles

Domain 1

V1 Part 1: Uncovering critical companionship - Kim Manley in conversation with Angie Titchen

V2 Journey to consultant practitioner and beyond – Jonathon Webster in conversation with Angie Titchen

V2 Longer version moved to Domain 5

Domain 2

V3 Impact of critical companionship on others - Karen Hammond & Angie Titchen

V5 Compassionate conversations - Mary Mulcahey & Kylie Richardson

V6 Creating safe spaces Mulcahey & Tuqiri - Moved to Domain 3

V7 Being a critical companion to a Nursing Home team developing their practice - Working through an internal/external relationship - Famke van Lieshout

V8 Critical companionship – A walk in the woods - Lorna Peelo-Kilroe & Angie Titchen

V10 Critical-creative retreat: Developing symbols and metaphors from nature to inform inquiry question - Margaret Codd & Angie Titchen

V11 Part 1: Learning, becoming and being an effective critical companion - Michele Hardiman

V11 Part 2: Learning, becoming and being an effective critical companion - Michele Hardiman

V12 Part 1: Using critical companionship in everyday situations – Donna Frost

V12 Part 2: Using critical companionship in everyday, more formal relationships – Donna Frost

Domain 3

V1 Part 2: Uncovering critical companionship: Collaborative development of strategic approach - Kim Manley in conversation with Angie Titchen

V6 Creating safe spaces for becoming and being a person-centred leader - Mary Mulcahey & Karen Tuqiri

V13 Part 1: Becoming a strategic, enabling clinical leader through critical companionship:
Experiencing critical companionship through a clinical leadership journey - Claire Hardwick & Angie Titchen

V13 Part 2: Becoming a strategic, enabling leader through critical companionship and developing flourishing cultures: Developing flourishing cultures through critical companionship and enabling strategic leadership - Claire Hardwick & Angie Titchen

V14 Strategic, enabling. person-centred leadership – Shaun Cardiff

Domain 4

V16 Part 1: Being embedded researchers in co-inquiry: The essence of embedded research linked to co-learning – Margaret Codd & Lorna Peelo-Kilroe

V16 Part 2: Being embedded researchers in co-inquiry: How do you know you are making a difference as embedded researchers who are co-learners working strategically? – Margaret Codd & Lorna Peelo-Kilroe

V17 Researching your own practice – Donna Frost

V18 Critical companionship between an internal and external facilitator of a participatory action research inquiry – Famke van Lieshout in conversation with Angie Titchen

Domain 5

V19 Working with Systems – Alex Fink

V20 Dismantling silos through working differently – Margaret Codd and Lorna Peelo-Kilroe

V2 (Long version) Journey to consultant practitioner and beyond: Viewpoints of the consultant practice journey through the five domains - Jonathon Webster in conversation with Angie Titchen

Impact Video

V21 Critical companionship: positive impact at micro, meso, and macro system levels for communities and the workforce – Kim Manley