

Spring Seminar Series 2026

Venue:
Earlham Hall,
University of East Anglia

Time: 17:30-19:30

Thursday, 16 April – Andy Hutcheson, ‘Always the sun: Arminghall timber circle and henge’s relationship to the celestial and similar monuments, near and far’. Earlham Hall 0.12

Thursday, 30 April – Philip Woods, “‘Travelling with intent to commit breaches of the Peace’? The response of the authorities to scooter rallies in Great Yarmouth during the 1980s’. Earlham Hall 0.02

Thursday, 7 May – Hannah Rose-Murray, “‘A Moral Map of the United States’: C19th Black Activism in East Anglia’. Earlham Hall 0.02

Thursday, 21 May – Meg Bernstein, ‘Communal Waters: North Norfolk’s Romanesque Baptismal Fonts’. Earlham Hall 0.02

CEAS On Tour – in partnership with the University of Suffolk

Charlie Rozier, ‘Hollingsworth’s Stowmarket: Unearthing the History of a Suffolk Market Town’, May, Date and venue TBC.

Free entry. All welcome.

For more on CEAS events, see: <https://ceasuea.org.uk/>