To find out about the Dare to Do Different campaign, please visit uea.ac.uk/dare-to-do-different

Over 60 years ago UEA was founded through the generosity of philanthropists who believed in the power of education to transform lives and the need for a university that was prepared to Do Different.

Now, in uniquely challenging times for the world, we have embarked on our new, multi-year Dare to Do Different campaign, aiming to raise £100m in philanthropic donations to supercharge our work and make sure UEA remains a home for progressive, bold thinking and decisive action on the things that matter most: creativity, a healthy planet and healthy people.

A place where everyone's contribution is valued and background is never a barrier to participation.

At UEA we've got the vision, the drive and some of the best, most innovative minds ready to solve the planet's most pressing challenges. On our website you can find out more about the campaign, the research, projects and students that your generosity is helping to support:

✦ uea.ac.uk/dare-to-do-different

Philanthropy is central to our future and your support for our students, our researchers, academics and programmes is helping us to make their ideas a reality.

We can't do it without you.
